Jackson Prep scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to beat Jackson Academy 35–24. The game was tied 7–7 at the half and 14–14 after three. Academy took a 21–14 lead on Aaric Beasley’s 23-yard run with 8:12 left. Herrin Goodman answered on the next play with an 81-yard kickoff return. Rett Robinson’s 38-yard field goal put Academy back in front, 24–21, with 4:26 remaining. Luke Essary then hit Hayes Grenfell for 64 yards, and Wade Smith scored from 9 yards out with 1:38 left.

Essary finished 14 of 19 for 243 yards and three touchdowns, with no interceptions. Prep was sacked four times and netted only 43 rushing yards, but started drives at its own 41 on average and intercepted three passes. Academy rushed for 177 yards, 171 of them by Beasley on 29 carries with two scores, and outgained Prep 333–286. Peyton Smith and Cole Frederick combined to complete 5 of 22 with three interceptions. Jett Ngo was 5 for 5 on extra points and missed a 37-yard field goal wide right at the end of the half.

Attendance, temperature, weather, stadium, and the officiating crew were blank in the DakStats file (attendance and temperature exported as 0). Figures below are the file as recorded, including half-sack splits on the defensive chart and a few drive rows the software marked “Unknown.”

Yards per play is derived from the file's plays and net yards (Prep 286 ÷ 49, JA 333 ÷ 60). All other lines are printed totals. Prep sack total on the team sheet is 2 for 14; the defensive chart splits those as McCluskey 0.5 / 5.5, Sam Brown 0.5 / 5.5, and Mounger 1.0 / 3.0. The summary sheet also lists McCluskey and Sam Brown at 1 sack and 6 yards each.

Solo / Ast / Tot from the full defensive chart. Sacks and tackles for loss are number / yards. FR = fumble recoveries (none). PBU = passes broken up. FF = forced fumble (AJ Williams; the kept Essary fumble in the fourth, recovered by Logan Harris, who does not appear on the tackle chart). Box-score leader lines differ slightly from this chart: Hudson listed 5 solo / 4 assists (still 11), Summers 4 / 2, McCluskey 3 solo / 9 assists (still 13). Summary sacks credited McCluskey 1 for 6, Sam Brown 1 for 6, and Mounger 1 for 3; Academy summary sacks were Williams 2 for 17, White 1 for 8, Miller 1 for 8, Hudson 1 for 8. The chart above is the split version.

“Opp” is the opponent’s territory. Two JA series and one Prep series are marked Unknown in the file where a punt was split onto a following 0-play row. Drive 13 for Prep is Goodman’s kickoff-return touchdown. Drive numbers restart in the sense that the file numbered paired series; both rows of a number are kept.

Down and distance

Play counts by down and distance, then every play on the DakStats down chart. Jersey numbers are the file’s: Prep 8 Essary, 5 Wade Smith, 3 Goodman, 2 McCluskey, 11 Bennett, 7 Reynolds, 36 Grenfell, 18 Hayden. Academy 6 Beasley, 9 Peyton Smith, 16 Frederick, 5 Clark, 3 Taylor, 4 Short.
